

About Us

Providing Cleaning Services in Dublin & Ireland for Over 15 Years

Over the last 15 years, Office Clean Ireland has become one of the leading contract cleaning companies in Dublin and throughout Ireland. Working with a range of companies, from SMEs through to large multinationals, we've built up a reputation for being reliable, professional, knowledgeable, flexible and affordable.

We are proud to be an Irish contract cleaning company that not only offers an efficient, economic commercial cleaning service but also a 'flexible' one. Large or small, all of our clients receive the same dedicated quality assured service.

The client always comes first

What sets us apart from most other contract cleaning companies in Ireland is the fact that we put our client relationship above all else. As a commercial entity of course we need to make a profit, but we do so by nurturing long-term client relationships. Strong client satisfaction invariably leads to positive referrals which is how we get most of our new contracts.

Reliable, honest, fully trained team of cleaning operatives

The thoroughness and attention to detail of our cleaning operatives will ensure that your premises are not just visibly clean but hygienically clean. Each member of our cleaning staff network undertakes a unique, specially designed training schedule to ensure they are fully qualified to work as part of our team. We pride ourselves on the fact that, in an industry which has a reputation for high staff turnover, many of our staff that have been with us for well over a decade. All of them are recognised within cleaning circles for their honesty and dedication to their work.

Office Clean

Cleaning Services Ireland

<http://www.officecleanireland.com>

Free, No-Obligation Site Survey & Quotation